

On the previous page you will see an impressive list of cruise lines our team have either sailed on, or inspected recently. This practical experience, along with intensive training, and personal cruise holidays, contributes to the cumulative pool of knowledge and expertise we must have to justify our position as one of Australia's premier specialist cruise agencies.

For you, our client, that means enhanced service from our side, as we work through myriad ships and itineraries, in order to carefully, and expertly, match you with the most appropriate ship - this is especially valued by novice cruisers.
